ICC Program	25-41 credits

[1]Themes and Perspectives courses may not apply toward a student's primary major program. Transfer students will be enrolled in the Liberal Arts and Society theme, which is only open to transfer students and is the only ICC theme that accepts credits earned prior to enrollment at Ithaca College.

[2]Academic Writing (WRTG10600 or equivalent) is a prerequisite for writing intensive courses; you may also receive credit for completing this requirement by scoring a 4 or 5 on the AP examination in English Literature & Composition or English Language & Composition. The attributes, DV, QL, WI, and CP may be completed through any designated major, minor, themes and perspectives, complementary liberal arts, or elective course.

[3]CLA requirements for degree program or school are tabulated at Ithaca.edu/icc/cla

If you believe that a course at a previous institution should apply towards ICC credit send an email with a course syllabus to the Director of ICC, icc@ithaca.edu. For more information, visit Ithaca.edu/ICC or email icc@ithaca.edu
