Academic Caps and Gowns

The custom of wearing academic caps and gowns is traced to the 12th century when most people wore long, flowing robes. By the 17th century, certain universities established the tradition of wearing apparel that distinguished different degrees and faculties. In 1895, the Intercollegiate Commission developed a code that regulated the design of gowns and hoods and their colors. You'll see today our doctoral candidates wearing gowns with three bars of velvet on each sleeve. Our master's candidates wear gowns with an oblong sleeve. The hoods are the most distinguishing part of the dress. They are lined in silk in the official academic colors of Ithaca College, and the trim color indicates the graduate's academic discipline.

Today, we will honor our candidates with their hoods, which they will wear at the Commencement ceremony.

Message from the President

DEAR GRADUATES:

Today represents one of the most significant accomplishments in your life: the formal recognition of the completion of your graduate study at Ithaca College. I wish to extend my sincere congratulations to you and recognize what an incredible moment this is for you and for your loved ones. This has been a historic, challenging period to take on a graduate program, and I admire your perseverance, your focus, and your commitment to mastering your field of study under truly unprecedented circumstances.

As you celebrate with your friends, family, and fellow graduates, please know how proud we are to count you as members of our Ithaca Forever community. I wish you much success and happiness in your future work and life, and I encourage you to keep in touch with all of us here on South Hill. May you be well, stay well, and take good care.

Sincerely,

LA JERNE TERRY CORNISH
PRESIDENT, ITHACA COLLEGE

DAVE PRUNTY joined Ithaca College in 1987 as a residence coordinator after earning his MA degree in higher education administration from Indiana University of Pennsylvania. He held a variety of leadership roles in the Office of Residential Life before being named conference and event services director.

Since 2015, he has served as executive director of auxiliary services, responsible for supervising offices including the Campus Center, Conference and Event Services, ID Operations, the Campus Store, General Services (Print Production, Mail Services, and the Warehouse), and Dining Services.

Prunty has been responsible for multiple campus-wide initiatives, including serving on the leadership teams for Convocation, Commencement, the Ithaca College 125th Anniversary Celebration, and many other large events. Since 2009, he has taught in the Roy H. Park School of Communications as a lecturer in the live event design and management minor. He has represented the college on the boards of a number of local organizations, including the Downtown Ithaca Alliance, Ithaca Tompkins International Airport, and Leadership Tompkins.

Ithaca Forever

MUSIC Philip J. Lang '33

LYRICS Alicia Carpenter

Ithaca, forever shine your light on me;
In my heart together we shall always be.
And here's to Ithaca, my Ithaca, how beautiful you are:
Your towers high upon South Hill reach from stone to star.

Ithaca, forever I'll recall a smile,
Clasp a hand in friendship, walk a snowy mile.
And here's to Ithaca, my Ithaca—alma mater true;
Although I leave Cayuga's shore, I'll remember you.

Ithaca, forever guide us on our way;
Like a shining beacon light our night and day.
And here's to Ithaca, my Ithaca, how bright your vision seems;
May all your sons and daughters dare to live their dreams.
